The '72-'73 school year has been a good one for Zweibrücken American High School. It has been a year of innovation and experience, and one of growth. And with the school, the yearbook has grown; both the staff and the book itself.

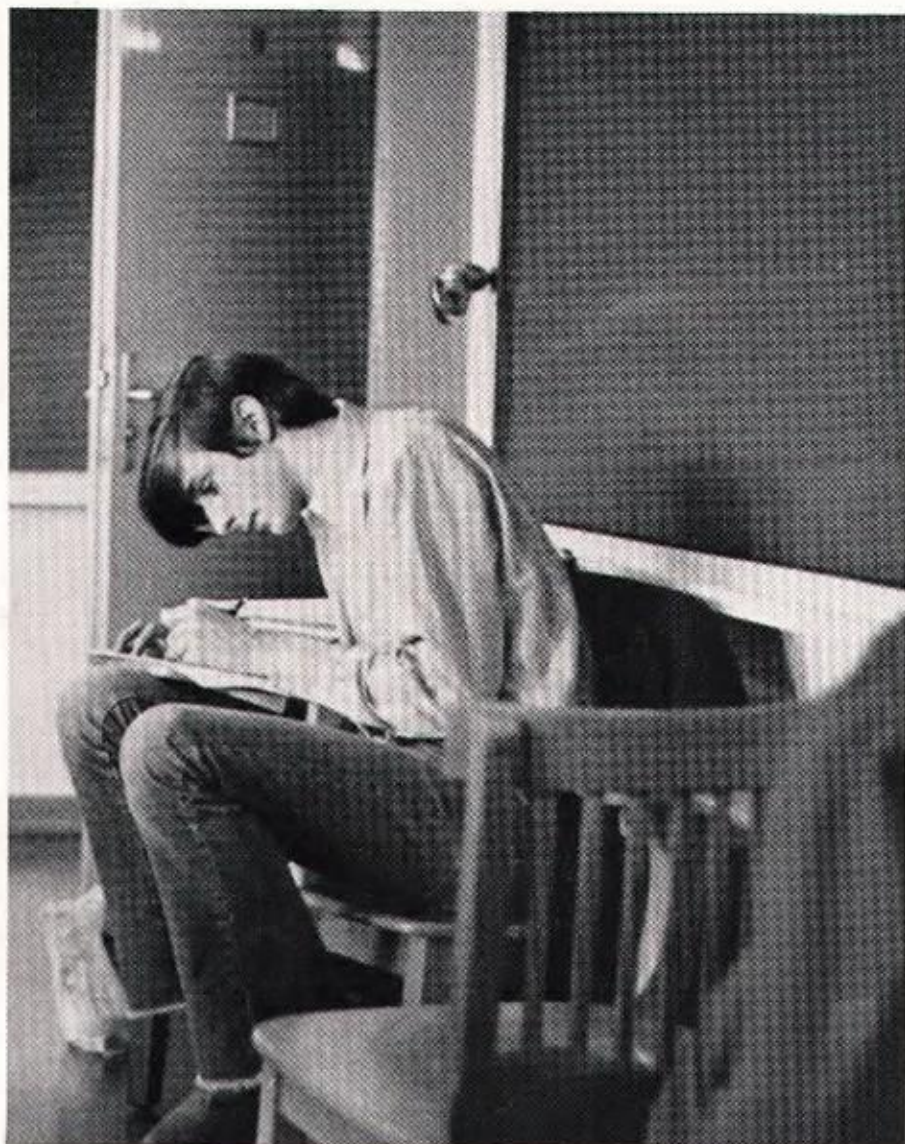

We, the Saga '73 Staff, have attempted to present to you within this book, a picture of ZAHS as a whole; a tapestry of life, of learning and of experience. Our aim has been to convey through this tapestry, the uniqueness of our school.

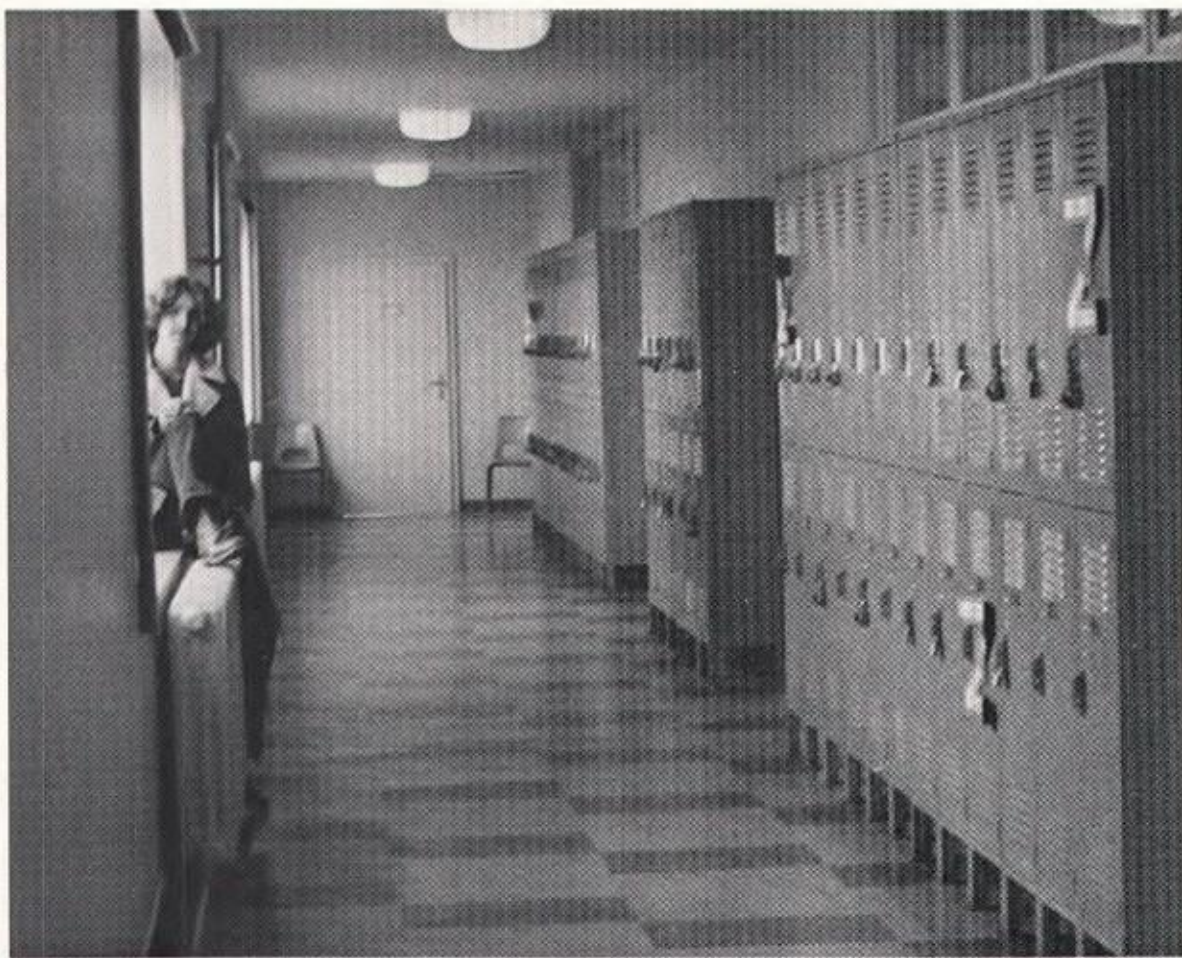

Laura Davis

Editor-in-Chief

There must be something out there
 Beyond or near, something greater something real . . .
 Sometimes I am right and I can be wrong,
 And all my beliefs are mixed in my mind.
 But now that I'll be by myself,
 And there's no one else.
 I tell myself to hold on alone.
 Hold on, World, because I'm beginning
 To see the light that when I'm alone I'm one.
 I get things done.
 Like they've never been done before.
 So hold on.
 The world is just a little town.
 Everybody tries to put me down.
 What am I suppose to be?
 What am I suppose to do?
 I'm determined to remember all the Cardinal rules.
 People tell me that learning consists
 Of accepting the world as it is
 And if we all work together
 We won't have time to fight.
 Forgive me, Lord, for when I ignored you.
 I believe now that all things must pass,
 Even the very simple things in life.
 Now is the time to live up to my dreams.
 My head and heart are in the right place
 And ready for a brand new start.

Pat Gregg

ZWEIBRÜCKEN TROJANS

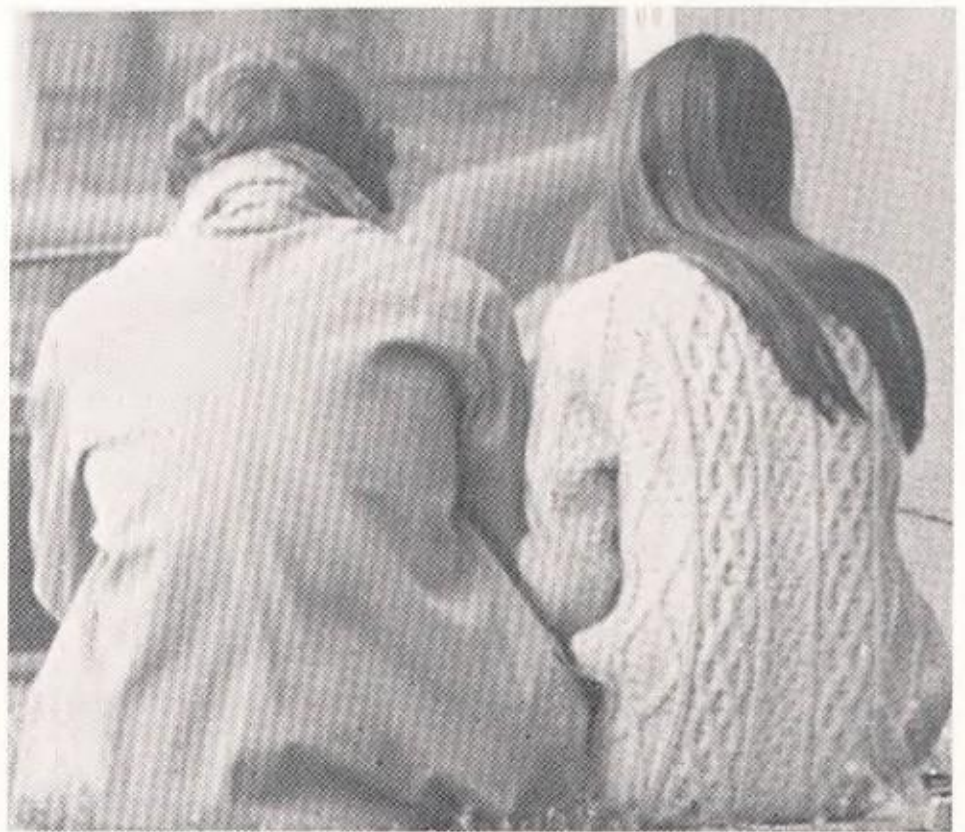

I do believe that God above,
 Created you for me to love.
 He picked you out from all the rest,
 Because he knew I'd love you best.
 Your heart is like a pot of gold,
 It's hard to get and hard to hold.
 I had a heart that once was true,
 But now it's gone from me to you.
 Take care of it as I have done,
 For you have two and I have none.

"Togetherness" is a happier word than loneliness.
So let's build a "togetherness"
Together.

Twenty-five more hours before he's leaving me,
But not forever.
I love him so, and he loves me,
So we will always be together in our hearts,
And wait for the time to come when we can say
Hello forever.

Lines from the bathroom wall

We're high, on top of the world
Depressed!
The world is why.

Why must the clouds be so gray?
We're stoned!
It's dark and lonely.

The world is spinning, round and round it goes.
Nobody knows how far we'll go.

People coming from everywhere.
Colors spinning around us.
We're happy this way.

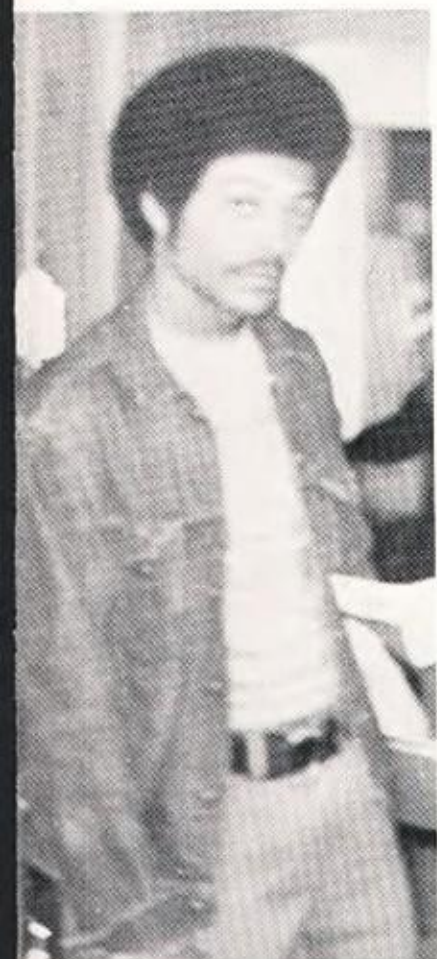

It's cold outside.
Cold is the world, but we're hot with anger.

Nobody cares anymore.
They've forgotten us.
Don't want to listen.

Se we dress differently,
think differently.
Why treat us so?

We protest to make you notice
us,
But you arrest us.

"You guys think teachers have it bad . . . well they do!"

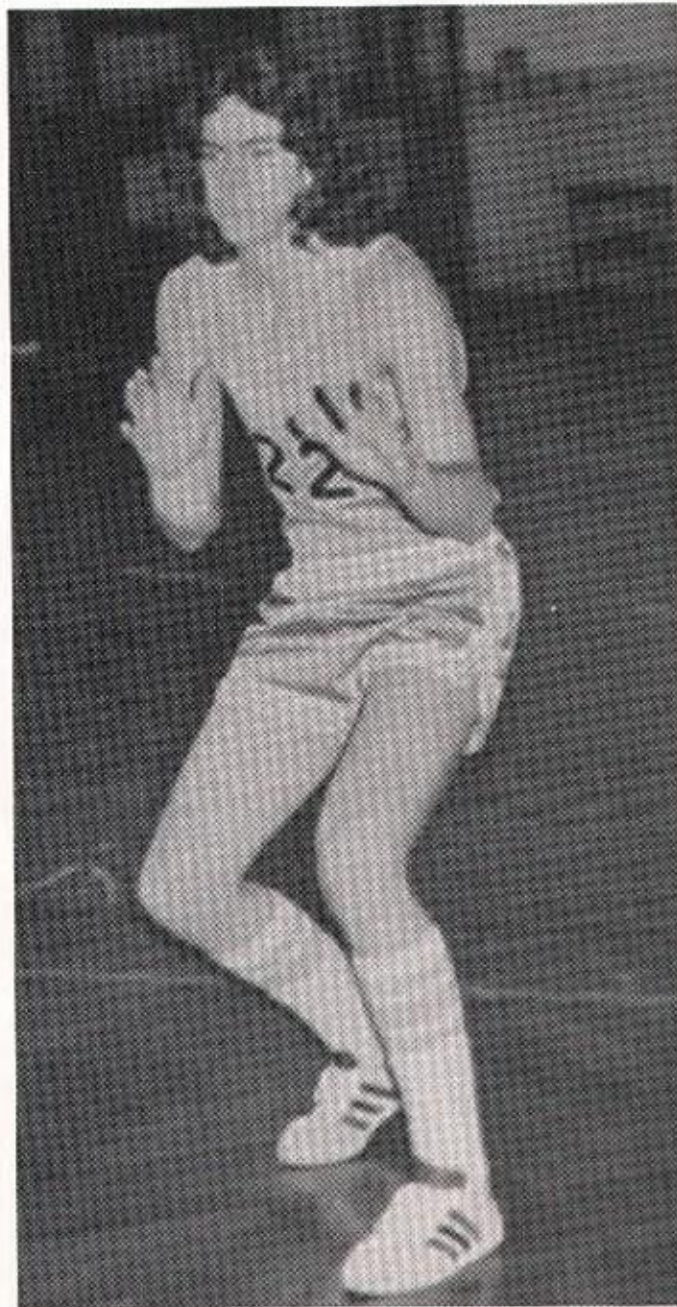

"I guess the only way in which to solve our problems is to declare that each day for the rest of the year be a "Be Kind To Teachers Day!" ... But then the students might start shouting equal rights ... Oh well, there's always next year."

For Dave Chavez to go from this...

You don't have to be a gymnast to wrestle Rocky Boyd, but it helps!

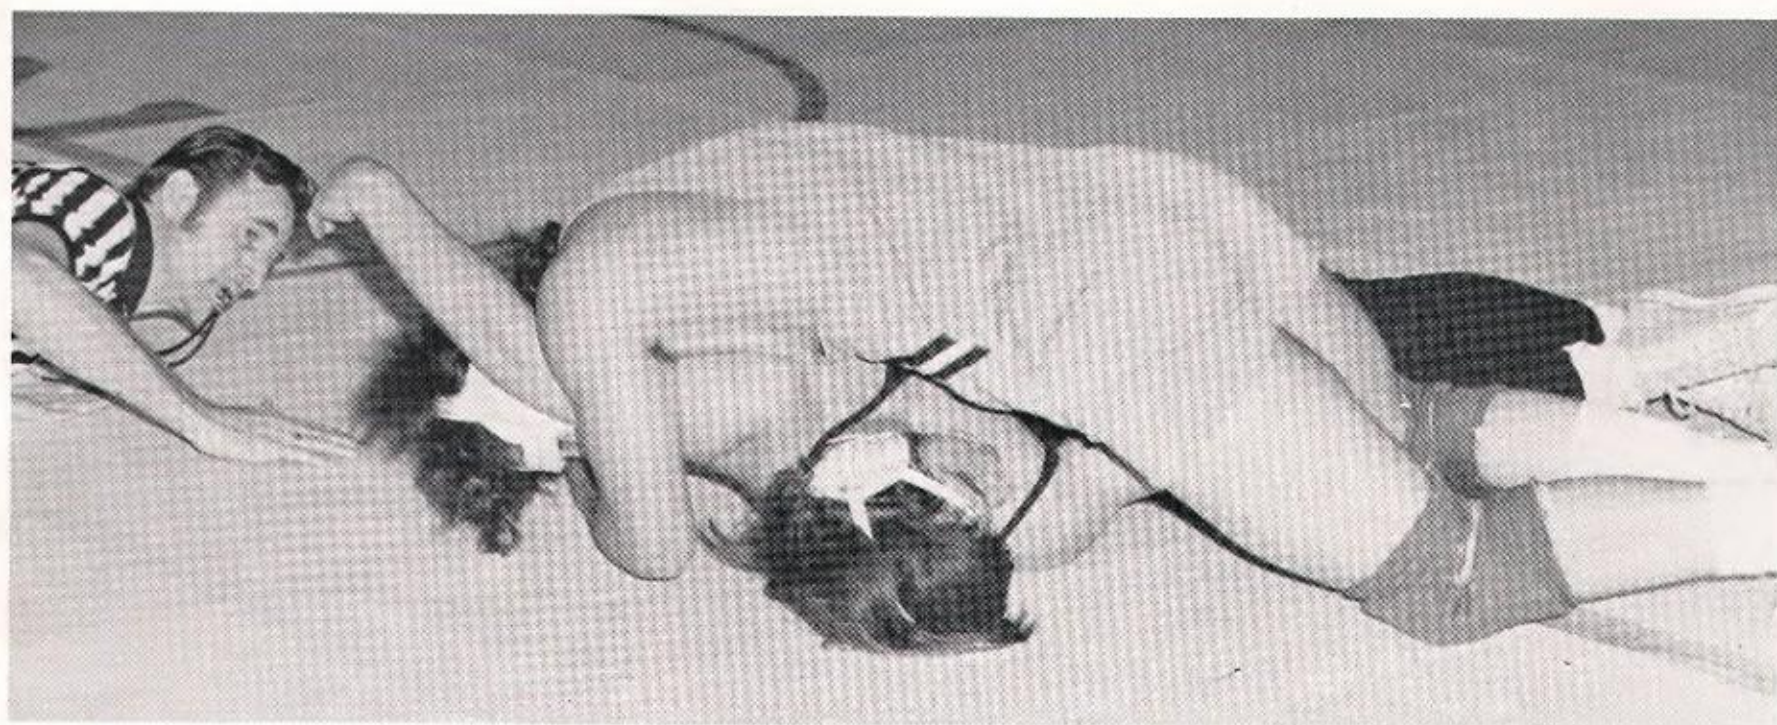

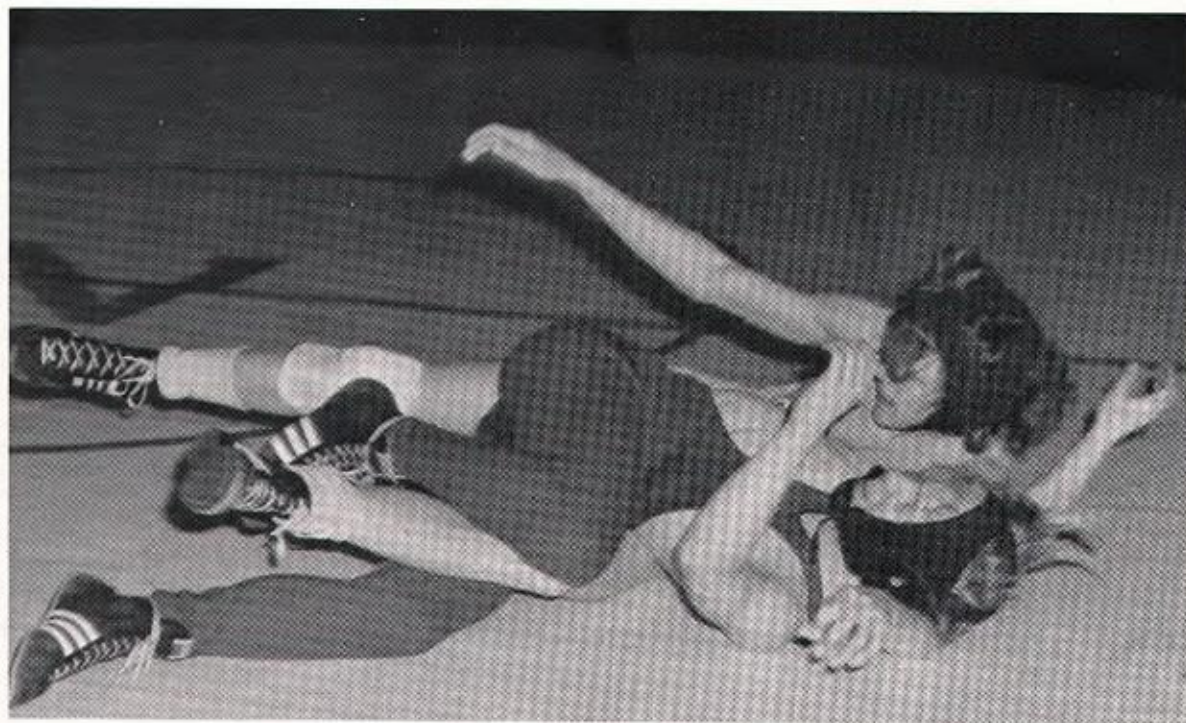

Of course the Trojans didn't spend all their time on top...

Roy Goss is well on his way to another pin for the Trojans.

Sadie Hawkins Dance

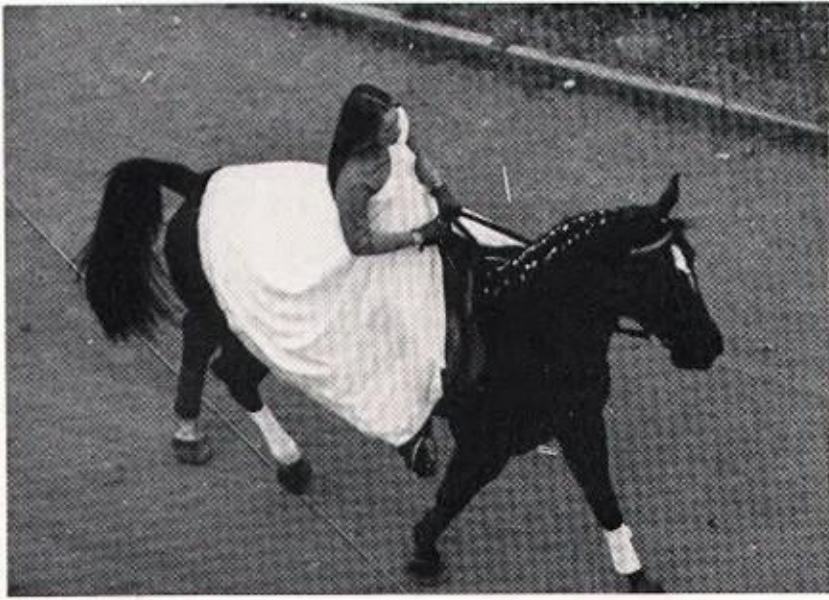

The yearbook staff would like to thank Bill Detwiler, a free-lance yearbook photographer, for his assistance.

On the 20th of October, 1972 activities were celebrated during half time of Zweibruckens Homecoming Game. The night before a bonfire was held to help promote the Homecoming spirit for the following day.

After the announcement of the Queen and her Court, there was a procession around the football field with the Queen and her Court riding in cars and classes presenting floats. With the added excitement of the Homecoming spirit and a victorious game against the Munich Vikings, the big Homecoming Day celebration ended with the victory dance.

A determined entry into a victorious Homecoming game against the Munich Mustangs. With much skill and vitality, the Trojans beat the Mustangs 32 - 6. Following the game was a victory dance held for the winning Trojans. A victory game, a victory dance and victory spirit all made for a Victorious Homecoming Day!

Trojan Chaos

Thinking, writing and typing are school paper.

Sabrina Allen, Hans Hoebler, Cheryl May, Miss Berry.

Facts must be checked and stories copyread by the sponsor. Miss Berry checks information for Cheryl May as Hans Hoebler and Sabrina Allen wait their turns.

Miss Berry, the Journalism sponsor, advises and aids the Journalism Class to produce a by-quarterly newspaper entitled "The Trojan CHAOS".

Jeannine Babbie, one of the typists, pecks vigorously as she attempts to finish one of the final pages of the CHAOS. Her efficiency is a great aid in getting a fantastic paper out and it is for this reason that her expression is one that means the business of meeting a deadline.

"DUH?" "How do you spell CHAOS?"

important aspects in producing the

Lily Cogswell, Leo Percy, Sebastian Allgood, Colleen Bittenger.

Proofreading is a major element in producing a good paper.

Lily Cogswell, the other typist, works together with Jeannine Babbie in producing a good paper, but of course proofreading is a job that comes with typing.

Students in Journalism Class discuss ideas and events before writing stories, the ideas must be thought out and planned thoroughly even before beginning to write the ideas down on paper.

The sponsor, Miss Berry, not only works hard (hardly works?) but is loved by all.

FACULTY

Teachers are human like the rest of us people. It just doesn't seem that way to some.

They don't live at school during the day and hibernate in their rooms at night.

They have moods--ups and downs--and feelings--and enjoy a good laugh.

Give them a chance, and you'll find them good people to know.

Administration

To The Graduates Of 1973

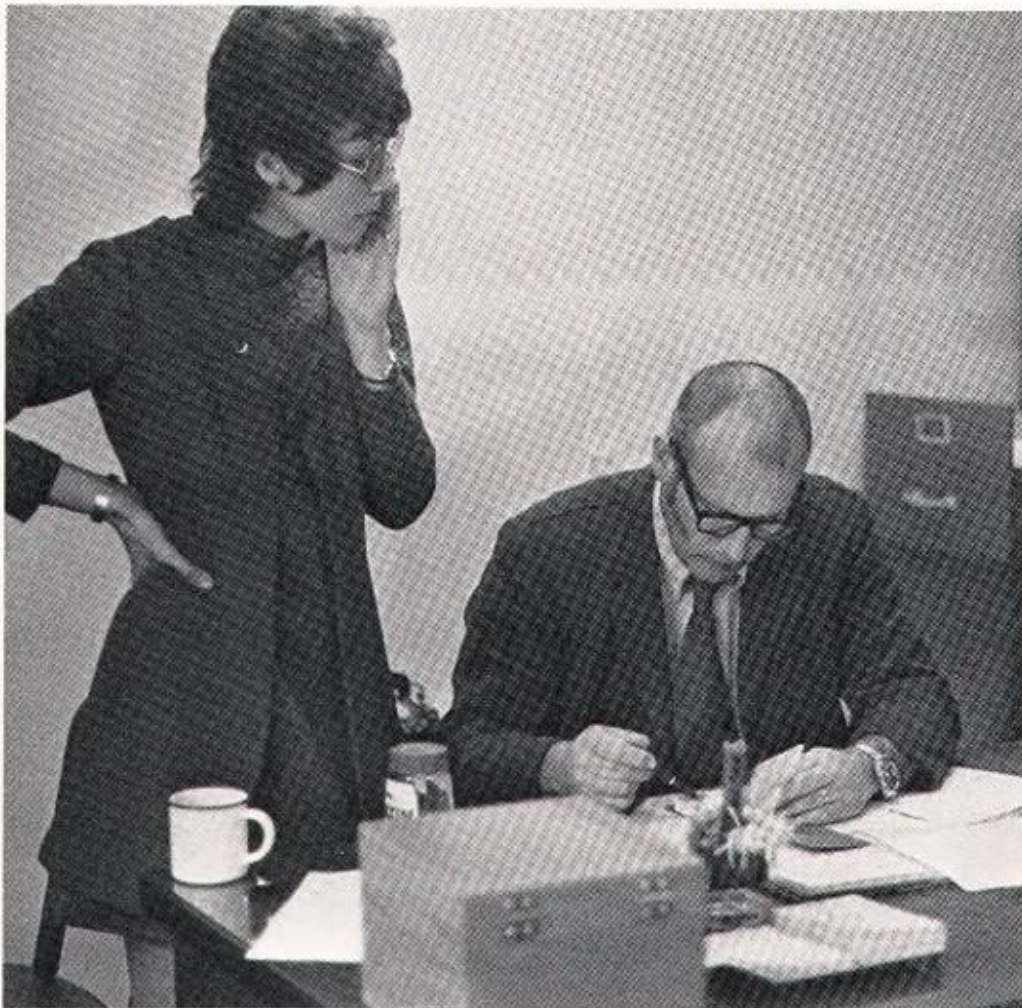

When you look back at your school days, you will find that time, like distance will lend enchantment to the view. You will relive many of the incidents that made your days here memorable. You will recall the excitement of your Commencement, and you will know that your graduation marked not "the end," but "the beginning." With the realization that the importance of learning, of education, lies not in becoming, but in being, you will know that this was the stage of your development when you accepted the privileges and responsibilities of being an adult.

I see my life as it's past:
The lights, the blacks,
The never come backs.

Was I alive or just some dream?
Is there proof to remain?

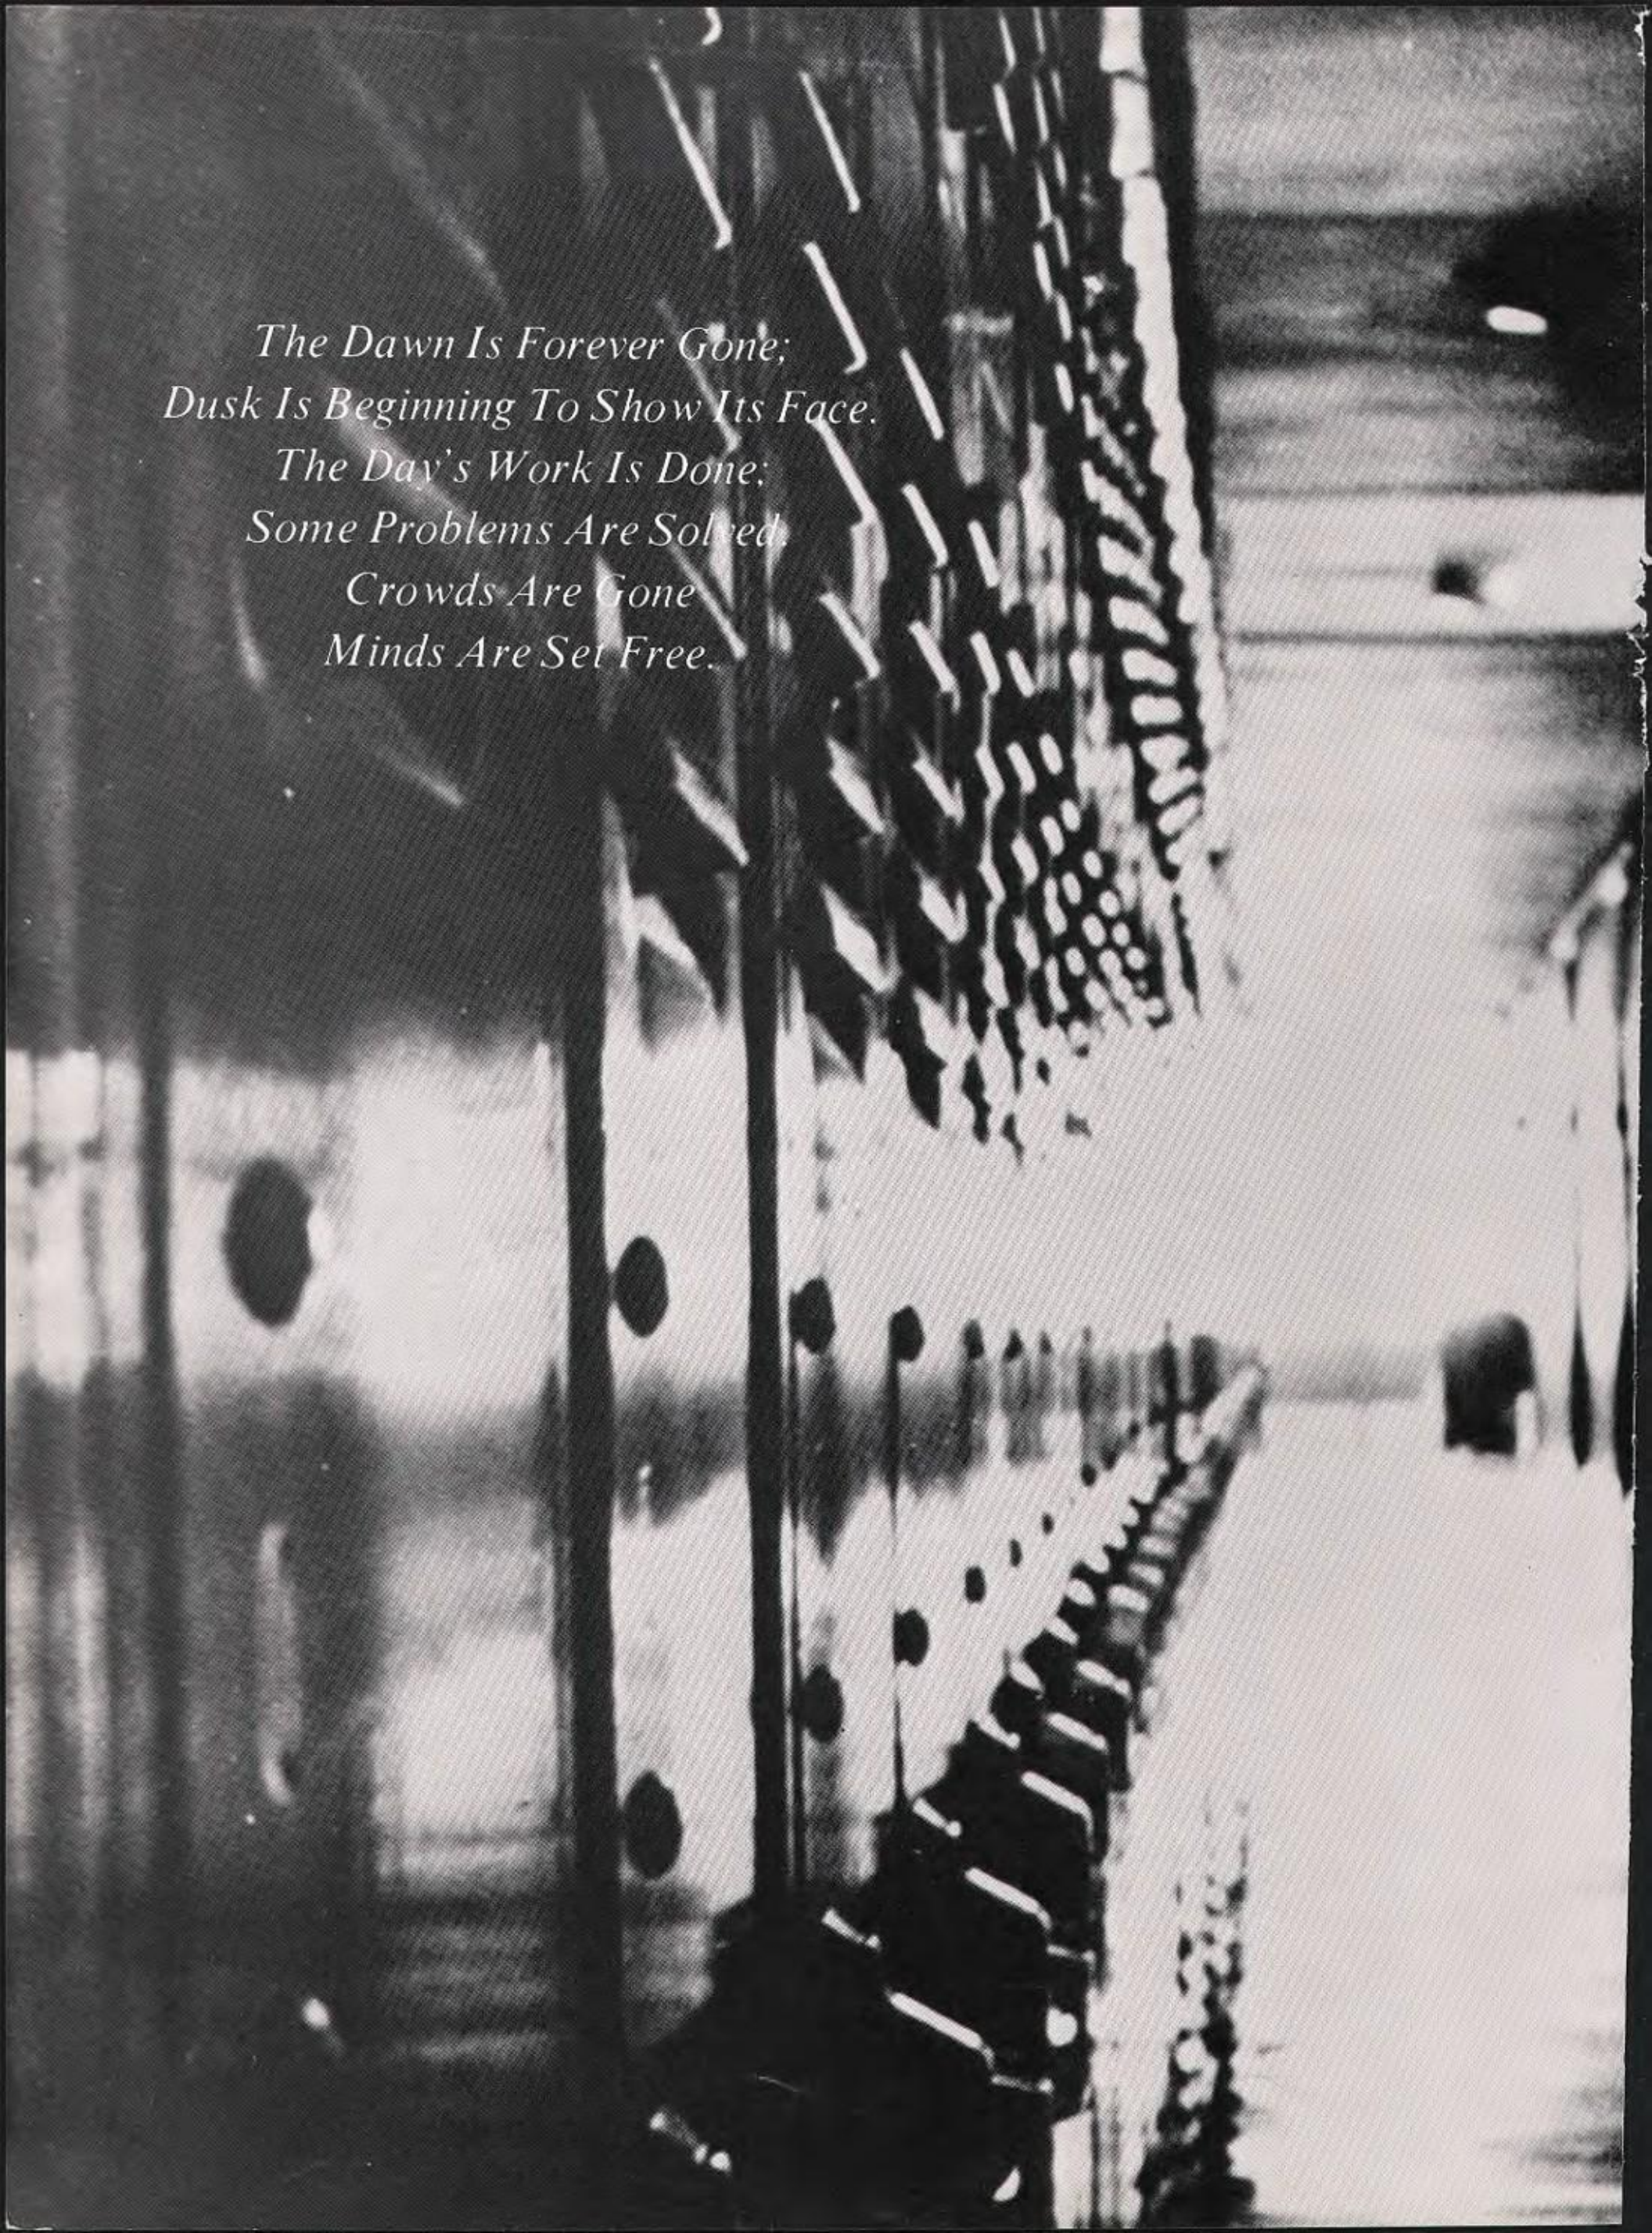

If I was, do I exist still?
What was life? Is it real?

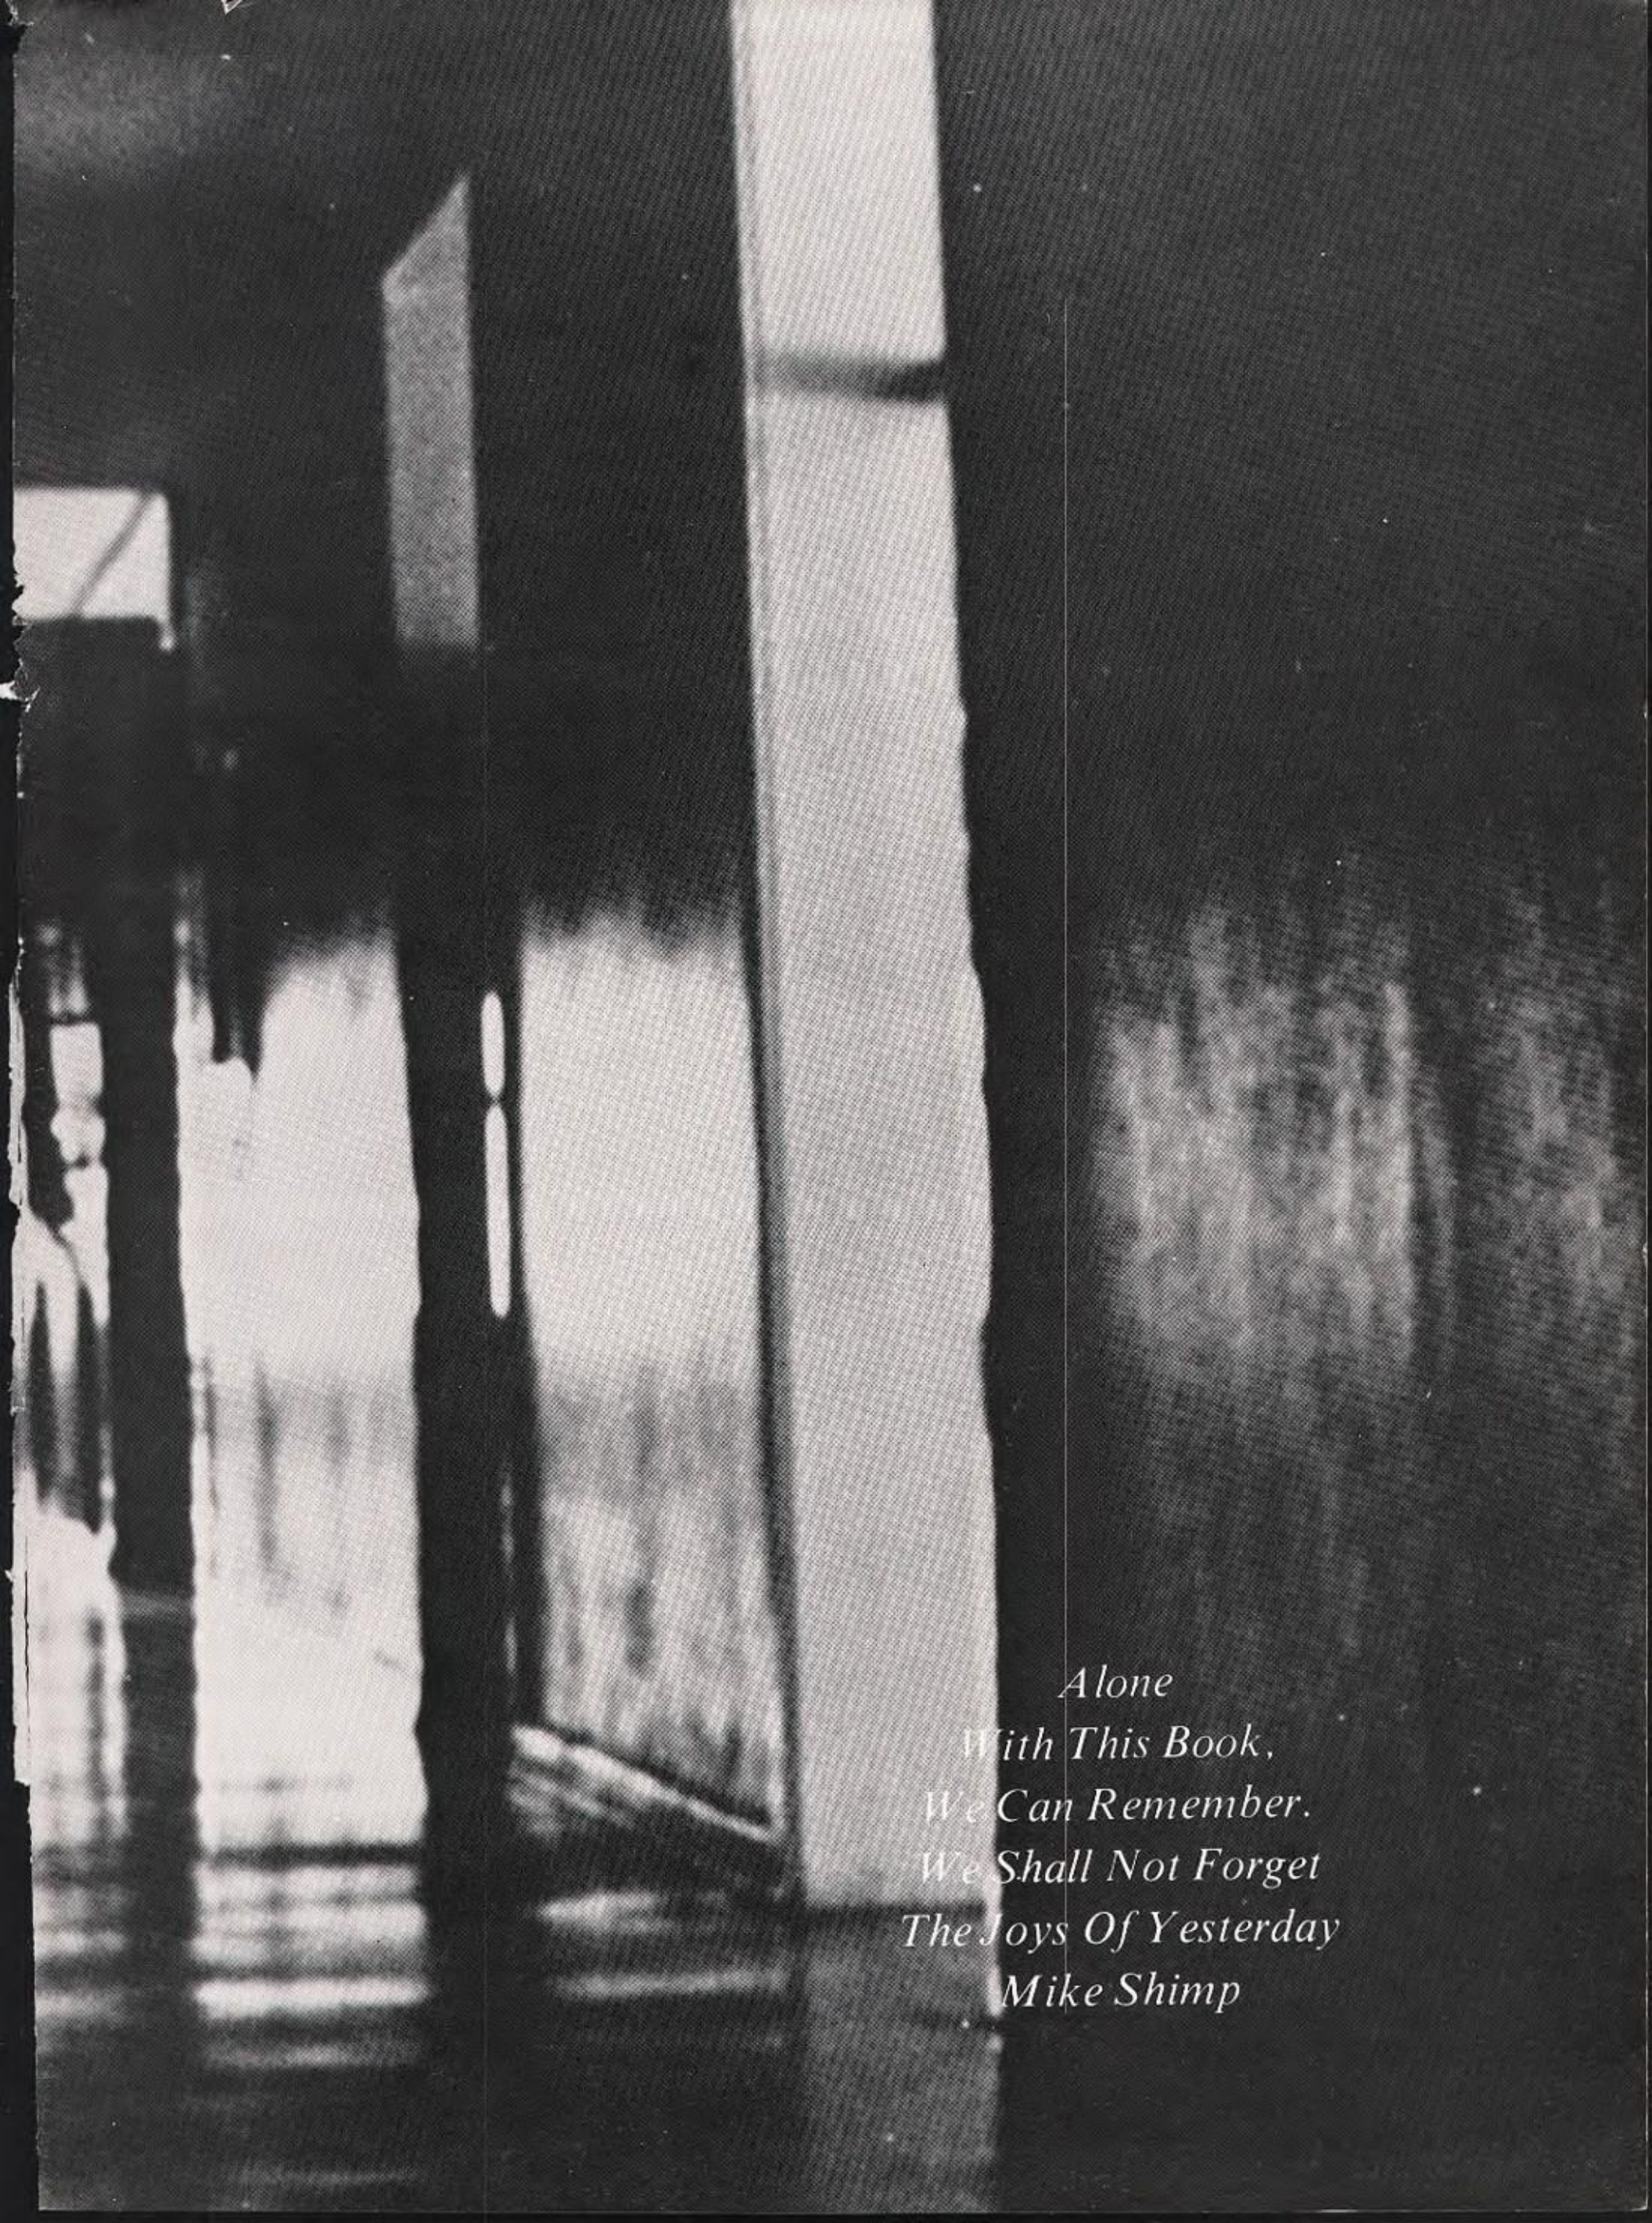

From birth to death, I was my own.
The records are kept
And memory remains...

Time which passes slowly
for us now
Will fade the picture of our short stay.
What have we said?
What's left to say?

*The Dawn Is Forever Gone;
Dusk Is Beginning To Show Its Face.
The Day's Work Is Done;
Some Problems Are Solved.
Crowds Are Gone
Minds Are Set Free.*

With This Book,
We Can Remember.

The Joys Of Yesterday

*There Is Joy In Remembering
In Going Back In Mind Long After
When You Return To Old Faces,
You Can Still Feel The Cool Laughter.
Opened Up Somewhere In A Quiet Room
A Book Brings Sweetness From The Past
From The Mind Crawls The Pleasure
Of Places And Events That Last
Only After And In Such A Time
Do You Forget And Remember At Once*
